

THE THANK YOU COUNTER

INT. BEDROOM - DAY

YOUTUBER sits in a room, talking directly to the camera. They are smiling and in a good mood, recording a video to give their thanks.

YOUTUBER

Hey guys, as I'm sure you've all seen, I've just hit 1 million subscribers, which is just an insane number. So I just wanted to make this quick video to say from the bottom of my heart an absolutely massive thank you...

As they say 'thank you' a graphic appears in the bottom corner of the screen accompanied by a DING. The graphic reads 'Thank You Counter:1' insinuating that each time a thank you is said, the number will go up. Seeing as this is a thank you video, we can only imagine the number will be rather large by the end....

YOUTUBER (CONT'D)

This means so so much to me and I'm just so grateful for you guys always being there for me, you guys rock, and I can't even say just how appreciative I am of you, that's what I am, just so appreciative. And of course I couldn't be where I am without my crew, always putting up with my dumb idea and keeping me in line, so to them I just want to say... you're amazing humans and I'm so glad that you're always there for me. Of course though, most of my gratitude does have to go to the viewers at home. I know I must sound like a broken record, but I really cannot express just how much this means to me, I am just so... agh, I'm just lost for words, for how I feel I'm just so...

They search for the right word, almost as though it's right on the tip of their tongue. They part their lips slightly, the tip of the tongue sticking out, teeth biting on it firmly, as though they are getting ready to make a sound.

... Freaking happy. I just need to say, I really am so appreciative of all the love you give me.

YOUTUBER (CONT'D)

You guys are seriously the best and it's all I can do to stop my self from saying, and pardon my French, merci, merci, merci, merci beaucoup. Alright I'm just rambling at this point so to end things off I'm just going to give one last and final th... that's amazing we achieved this goal. Alright cheers, I'll see you guys soon.

Youtuber relaxes slightly as though breaking character and looks of screen at the crew.
